* Not admitted. The Republican Platform.

Necessary for choice,

The National republican party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Chicago, on the 20th day of May, 1868, make the following declaration of principles:-First-We congratulate the country on the ssured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress as evinced by the adoption in the ma-jority of the State lately in rebellion of constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all; and it is the duty of the government to sustain those institutions and to prevent the people of those States from being remitted to a state of narchy. (Cheers.)

Second-The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South was de-manded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States. (Cheers.)

Third-We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime—(prolonged cheers)—and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted. (Applause.) Fourth-It is due to the labor of the nation that faxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

Fifth-The national debt contracted, as it has been, for the preservation of the Union for all ever it can be honestly done.

Sixth-That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay and must conframed constitutions of State governments tinue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or towhich are republican in form, and have tal, open or covert, is threatened or suspected. Seventh-The government of the United States my, and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

Eighth-We professedly deplore the untimely Representatives of the United States of Amer. | and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln and regret ict in Congress assembled, That the States of Andrew Johnson to the Presi-North-Carolina, South-Carolina, Louisiana, dency, who has acted treacher only to the people dency, who has acted treacher only to the people dency by the cause by was pleasured. who elected him and the cause he was piedged to support; who has usurped high legislative admitted to representation in Congress as States of the Union when the Legislatures and judicial functions; who has refused to exeignore and violate the laws, who has employed his executive powers to render insecure the property, the peace, liberty and life of the citizen; who has abused the pardoning power; who ninth Congress, and known as article four-teen, upon the following fundamental condition: That the constitutions of said States ruptly resisted by every measure in his power every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion; who has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption, and who has been justly impeached in their right to vote who are now entitled for high crimes and misdemeanors and properly pronounced guilty thereof by the vote of thirty-five Senators. Ninth-The doctrine of Great Britain and oththe feudal times, not authorized by the law of ations and at war with our national honor and ndependence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship fifth article of the Constitution of the State | of the United States, native or maturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any tor eign power, for acts done or words spoken in this country; and it so arrested and imprisoned is the duty of the government to interfere in

Tenth-Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war there were none entitl. d to more essecial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise and imperilled their lives in the service of their country; the bounties and pensions provi-ded by the laws for these brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten; the willows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people-a sacred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care.

Eleventh—Foreign configration, which in the post has added so much to the wealth, development and resources and increase of power to this nation, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, hould be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

Twelfth—This Convention declares itself in sympathy with all the oppressed people which are struggling for their rights.
